

Here they come . . .

60,000 of them

Mormon Missionaries

Young fellows, neatly dressed, polite, ringing doorbells — two by two!

Telling you that:

- Your church is all wrong
- Your creed is an abomination
- Your pastors are corrupt

They will also tell you that:

- God is an exalted man of flesh and bone
- Jesus was the spirit brother of Satan
- Jesus' death on the cross only partially saves the believer
- An exalted man—of flesh and bone—is the father of Jesus
- Men may become Gods, with many wives
- There are many Gods
- Your Bible cannot be trusted
- Your personal sins can only be remitted by obedience to Mormon laws and ordinances
- There is no salvation outside the Mormon church
- The New Covenant is Plural Marriage, not the shed blood of Jesus

But . . .

- They will not tell you all of these things on their first visit, and they will use more guarded language.

- Some of these things you may never learn until you are baptized into their church.
- They will tell you all about their fine example in home living.
- They will tell you about their fine music.
- Their tithing program.
- Their relief program.
- Their fine Temples.
- Their educational programs.

THEY WILL NOT TELL YOU:

- About their secret (not sacred) Temple Ceremonies.
- About secret names, signs, and words that you must know to go into Godhood.
- About secret, magical underwear you must always wear.
- About blood oaths you must swear—death penalties for the disobedient.
- They will not tell you how they use your tithing and offerings.
- How rich they are in the business world; how well their leaders are paid; how many businesses the church owns or controls.

WHY ARE THEY HERE?

They are out to get the members of your church—those who will listen to them—those who are non-attenders—members who are weak in doctrine—members who have wealth or civic prestige.

They are out to gather in your people through their youth groups, in the community, on the college campus and at high schools.

They brag about the fact that most of their converts are from the protestant churches. They are highly successful.

They are persistent—trained to deceive.

But they can be thwarted in their purpose, and they can be won to Christ with persistent effort and wise approach.

How to deal with them . . . →

First, don't invite them into your home unless you are prepared to deal with them in full Christian strength and authority.

Second, if you already are going through their memorized lessons, contact your pastor or us immediately. Let a trained Christian worker sit in on your next lesson!

"And many false prophets will arise, and will mislead many."

Matthew 24:11

"But even though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel contrary to that which we have preached to you, let him be accursed."

Galatians 1:8

"Test all things; hold fast that which is good."
