

WHO'S PERSECUTING WHO?

“PERSECUTION!!” the upset Mormon may cry (or think) when confronted by someone passing out “anti-Mormon” literature, or trying to talk to him about Biblical faith in Christ. Before automatically feeling persecuted in situations such as these, wouldn't it be good to investigate the claims being made in the literature, try to understand the motive(s) behind it, and also to ask, “Is the Mormon Church guilty of the very thing the other person is being accused of, namely, persecution?”

Obviously, it would be very unfair to point the finger at someone for doing the same thing you had been and were still doing. That would be hypocritical. Can it be clearly shown that the Mormon Church has attacked other churches in the past and is still doing so? Let's be fair, and permit the record to speak for itself.

“AM I THEREFORE BECOME YOUR ENEMY, BECAUSE I TELL YOU THE TRUTH?”

The Apostle Paul (Galatians 4:16)
